

Personal Skills Award Student of the Year Winner

Kate Anson - Geography

Kate won the PSA Student of the Year award as a second year student and evidences how to make the most of being at university and undertaking a wide range of opportunities. Throughout her completion of the PSA it was clear she has a passion for her subject but is also dedicated to enhancing her professional development and working where she can help others. Kate is always friendly and personable and has impressed the PSA team throughout her completion of the programme. Kate has a vast array of interests from sport to travelling.

An example of activities she has undertaken:

- Representing University Ladies 2nd at Badminton, and a Committee member
- She has been a Student Ambassador for the University
- Kate volunteered as a Games maker at the Olympics
- She has Volunteered at music festivals (Fire Warden)
- She has held the position of Welcome Week and Registration Assistant
- Kate has secured funding to go to Thailand for fieldwork

Kate will be continuing her studies and activities in her final year at University of Birmingham in 2013/14.
