New fence and planting along west side of the path on boundary of Park Grange Existing Car Park relocated to west of path, existing no. of spaces maintained Chain link fence, Cherry Laurel hedge and row of poplars removed at disused garden to create an arrival 'square' between Met & Mat and the Data Centre Path splits to avoid significant yew tree and end of existing stone dwarf wall to accommodate route in front of listed building. 1 tree lost and replanted Existing modern garden remodelled, (including fencing to match existing) width is reduced to 4 meters. Where the route passes vals of 21 meters with low UV emissions to reduce the wide (2.5m for pedestrians and 2.5m for cycles), apart close to trees, construction of path will be designed to The path is designed to minimise the impact on trees,
Levels adjusted to deal with existing dwarf wall, drop of approx 500mm
Undergrowth cleared either side of Gas Substation to improve visibility (4 meters high) are provided along the path at inter-Wooden fence and planting removed so that path is contiguous with Pavement remodelled/reduced to accommodate larger traffic island Cyclists and pedestrian swap sides at road crossing in order to Existing traffic island replaced by larger island to improve safety 1.8m fence with planting to screen path from nursery garden
Route narrowed at approach to groundsman's access road
New opening formed in existing steel fence and planting
Undermanaged woodland area of Park Grange garden
New opening formed in hedge and existing dwarf wall
20 trees removed and replanted in this stretch
29 trees removed and replanted in this stretch
2 trees removed and replanted in this stretch
9 trees removed and replanted in this stretch
Vice Chancellor's garden, avoiding key trees
Path passes through overgrown area behind Existing stone wall to listed building retained
Path utilises existing stone gateway
Route to the Vale
Existing gazebo and hut relocated
Bollards to slow cyclists
Bollards to slow cyclists
Bollards to slow cyclists
Bollards to slow cyclists
Benches provided