External funding awards to facilitate collaboration with US academics and to support post-graduate recruitment from the US.

FACULTY

Fulbright Scholars Award 2014/15
The deadline for applications for 2013-14 has already passed, and we are hoping to receive our first Fulbright Scholar next year. However, please do promote this through your academic networks now to encourage applications for next year.

Each year one award will be offered to a US citizen in support of research and/or teaching/lecturing in any subject, in any of (or a combination of) the University of Birmingham's research-active departments. The appointment will be for a period of 3-9 months. Candidates will be selected by the Fulbright Commission and the Council for the International Exchange of Scholars (CIES) to receive a grant to be used towards related travel and maintenance costs.
Deadline for applications: 1 August 2013

Fulbright Distinguished Chair Award (2014-18)
We are one of only three UK institutions who have been competitively selected to host this prestigious award over the next four years. Distinguished Chairs contribute to the intellectual life of their host university through seminars, public lectures and curriculum development in any discipline. They may be deployed to represent the university in other capacities, or they may be free to pursue their own research objectives. Further details will be circulated shortly.

We have also been invited to be a host institution for Fulbright's Distinguished Teacher Award programme - details tbc.

STUDENTS
