FACILITIES AVAILABLE TO HONORARY STAFF AND EMERITUS PROFESSORS

Further details available on the University web pages: www.birmingham.ac.uk

LIBRARY SERVICES
In order to register as a library user, a member of honorary or Emeritus staff should take his/her appointment letter to the Main Library and complete the registration process.

IT SERVICES
For access to computing services, contact the IT support officer in your School, or the computing helpdesk on extension 47171.

HEALTH AND SAFETY
The Health and Safety Unit is responsible for advising the University, Schools, Departments and individuals on health and safety matters, monitoring implementation of University health and safety policies, providing training and a variety of technical services, investigating accidents and incidents, and disseminating information. It also acts as the main contact with the enforcing authorities. For further information contact extension 45251.

CAR PARKING
Vehicular entrance to the University is controlled by security barriers operated by a swipe card: contact extension 42623.

SECURITY
The Security Manager and his staff will answer any queries relating to security on campus: contact extension 43000.

CONFERENCE FACILITIES
The University has a range of accommodation and facilities which are available for conferences, groups and courses: contact extension 58400.

UNIVERSITY CATERING SERVICES
University Catering offer a range of services including restaurants, bistros, private dining rooms and outside catering: contact extension 46252.

RESEARCH AND INNOVATION SERVICES
Research and Innovation Services helps academic staff to obtain research grants and contracts from external sponsors, and also assists the University to promote its research strengths and to form its research policies and strategies: contact extension 43859.
CENTRAL PRINTING SERVICE
Central Printing Service provides a comprehensive printing service including graphic design, typesetting, single and multi-colour printing, finishing and binding: contact extension 46684.

ENGLISH FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS UNIT (EISU)
The English for International Students Unit (EISU) provides term time languages support via classes and one to one consultations to the University’s students and visiting scholars: contact extension 45697

LANGUAGES FOR ALL
Languages for All offers courses for staff, students and members of the general public in a range of languages and at all levels: contact extension 43324

STAFF SUPPORT
The University runs a staff support programme, including access to a range of different services and interventions: contact extension 45117.

STUDENT SUPPORT AND COUNSELLING
This service complements the Support and Guidance systems operating in Schools/Departments. Students whose progress is inhibited by practical welfare, learning or emotional/psychological difficulties, and those with special needs e.g. a disability, can expect to access appropriate professional support or counselling by consulting the central Student Support and Counselling Service: contact extension 45130.

SPORTS FACILITIES
The Munrow Sports Centre is the focal point for much of the sporting activity on campus. The Centre's facilities include a 25m deck-level pool, 2 sports halls, a dance studio, fitness and weights rooms, sauna and sunbed suites, a climbing wall, squash and tennis courts, a sports injuries and fitness assessment unit, and a bar/cafeteria, as well as changing and showering areas: contact the Reception Desk, extension 44117.

CHAPLAINCY
The Chaplaincy is based in St. Francis Hall, next to the Guild of Students, and is the focal point for all religions on campus. Four full-time and thirteen part time Chaplains represent all the major world faiths, and are available to staff and students for advice and help. For further information contact 0121 414 7000/7001.