Directions

By car

Approaching from the North West or south east along the M6:
- Leave at Junction 6 (signposted Birmingham Central) to join the A38(M)
- At the end of the motorway, keep to the right, go over a flyover, then through some underpasses to join the A38 Bristol Road
- The University is on your right, two and a half miles from the city centre

Approaching from the M42 north:
- Leave at Junction 8 to join the M6 northbound and follow the instructions above

Approaching from the south west:
- Leave the M5 at Junction 4 (signposted Birmingham SW) to join the A38
- The University is approximately eight miles from the motorway

Approaching from the M40:
- It is easier to turn south on the M42 and leave at Junction 1, heading north on the A38 Bristol Road
- The University is approximately eight miles from the motorway

Parking:
- Please park in either the North Car Park (the ERI building is across the road) or Pritchatts Road car park. Both are shown on the enclosed campus map and are pay and display.

By rail

Most cross-country services to Birmingham arrive at New Street Station. Up to six trains an hour depart for the University on the cross-city line (ten minutes to University station, final destination Longbridge or Redditch). The ERI building is only 5 mins walk from University station. As you exit the station turn right past bus stop along pavement to the first road on your right and follow this road (Vincent drive) till you get to Pritchatt Road and then turn right. The ERI building is on your left shortly past the railway bridge.

By taxi

There are taxi ranks at New Street Station and throughout the city centre. The journey to the University takes about ten minutes.
