

USA TRAVEL BAN – ADVICE AND SUPPORT

In light of the current changes to travel arrangements imposed by the Presidential executive order, we would like to reassure and remind our community of students that support is available to you.

The USA has imposed travel bans on nationals from the following countries who face a 90-day visa suspension:

- Iraq
- Syria
- Iran
- Libya
- Somalia
- Sudan
- Yemen

Immigration and travel advice and guidance:

As part of our service the ISAS offer free and confidential appointments on immigration and other related issues to University of Birmingham students.

You can book an appointment to see an ISAS advisor via this link
During the appointment, the ISAS will offer specialist advice on a wide range of issues including immigration and travel.

If you would prefer you could email your question to the ISAS via the student help portal www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk

Study Abroad/Exchange:

Students who are currently on exchange at a US institution or are going on an exchange in 2017/18, and have dual nationality that includes one of the seven countries please email the Study Abroad Office: outgoingstudyabroad@contacts.bham.ac.uk.

Other sources of support:

- The Guild of Students can offer confidential appointments and can be contacted by going to <https://www.guildofstudents.com/support/guildadvice/who-we-are-guild-advice/>
- The Universities Chaplaincy:
You could also speak to someone at the Chaplaincy and can find further details at <https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/chaplaincy/index.aspx>

Published: 7th February 2017