

Thesis Restricted Access Application Form –

Criteria

This restriction category is appropriate where your thesis includes results or data which are part of a broader ongoing research project at the University of Birmingham and release of those results could prejudice the impact or perceived originality of future publications from that project team.

Limitations and requirements

Max Embargo Period: 4 Years

Extension Permitted: YES (on a per 12 month basis with approval from supervisor or project PI)

Authorisation: Supervisor to complete declaration in Section 2

Evidence Required: Details of the ongoing research project, it's anticipated duration and name/contact details of the Principle Investigator (PI). Include an overview of why release of the thesis would be detrimental at this stage
